Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's claimed invention distinguishes over the prior art for the following reasons. The claims are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the references, either alone or in combination, discloses or renders obvious optimizing memory resources during system initialization by writing system BIOS data from conventional memory to an extended memory upon determining unavailability of amount of conventional memory requested by system BIOS and deleting system BIOS data located in conventional memory that has been written into the extended memory.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
